DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 13, 14, and 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The original disclosure supports only a statutory/hardware system/method with no mention that such hardware system/method can be or may be performed/substituted by various combinations of software and hardware without any adequate and enabling disclosure. The specification fails to recite a computer-readable medium.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 13, 14, and 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 13 recites a computer-readable medium. However, such a medium has not been defined or supported in the specification; thus it is vague and indefinite as to the metes and bounds of what defines the medium.

Claims 14 and 16-18 depend from claim 13.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1, 2, 4-6, 9, 10, and 12 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicants' arguments and amendments with respect to the rejection of claims 1, 2, 4-6, 9, 10, 12-14, and 16-18 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made as stated above.
